2014-2015 Local: Immaculate Conception of Mary Church, Dimmitt, Tx.: Help with their annual fund raiser and raised 2,000 dollars for the church, by conducting and working a food stand. Helped with San Jose's annual Fund raiser by collecting donations, food items and also selling raffle tickets. Uriel Sosa and Lalo Rodriguez: These are my neighbors and every year during the spring I help them castrate and vaccinate one thousand bulls in an open pasture. It is an interactive exercise that educates me regarding livestock management and the handling of cattle.

2015-2016 Local: Snack Pak 4 Kids Every Friday I would stay after school and administer a team of students that packed food for children that received little or no food at all during the weekends, Team Tatum-Burger Cook Out: Every year we make a benefit cook out for a person struggling in our community. Last year we benefited a seven year old sweetheart named Tatum Schulte, When Tatum was six she was diagnosed with cancer and was needing money for an amputation just below the knee. We are happy to say that we raise six thousand dollars in total for Tatum and that her amputation was a total success.

Regional: South Plains Food Bank Lubbock, Tx: Last year my chapter and I took a field trip down to Lubbock and volunteered for over five hours non stop and packaged, bagged and stacked about two point five tons of food. I was really happy that we could help out regionally and help in the process of feeding the people of the south plains.

2016-2017 Local: Dimmitt High School FCCLA Chapter: As VP of Membership of my chapter and I conducted a membership drive during registration and until the due date on November the first. My goal for this year is to promote FCCLA so that more people get involved and become a part of the "Ultimate Leadership Experience". This year I also have had the opportunity to organize, administer, and conduct fall leadership workshops for Odessa FCCLA Chapter and Dimmitt High School FCCLA Chapter, both of them being a success.

Regional: St. Anthony's Church: Help serve, bussed tables, and direct a clean up crew of fifteen people.

Power of One Units completed:

A Better You, Family Ties, Working on Working, and Speaking Out for FCCLA

Contributions the candidate has made to Family, Career and Community Leaders of America, the Family and Consumer Sciences program, and the school and community.

Local/Regional/State:

Local:

1) Our FCCLA is currently planning the design and implementation of candy filled stockings for children in need. Also, we will make stockings for Lubbock High's 260 Faculty and Staff members, School Board Members, and students in need for St. Matthew's Episcopal Church during our Family Consumer Sciences courses. Lastly, on behalf of our FCCLA, we will be presenting these candy filled stockings with FACTS about FCCLA to our Local School Board.

Region:

1) I worked in collaboration with Coronado High School (a Region 1) FCCLA group to organize a Halloween Carnival for structured learning students.

School/Community:

School:

I am a part of AVID (Advanced Via Independent Development), Ready Set Teach, and Poncho Claus (Mexican Santa Clause drive.

1) In AVID, I participate in community service outside of in school. Here are a few things I have done in this program. I have picked up trash for recycling for our campus, I've been to local schools to talk about why kids need to graduate from high school.

2) In Ready Set Teach, I teach 4th grade math and art for all primary grades at my old elementary school. While I teach these students, I also stress the importance of education in hopes that students will take learning seriously so they can have a better future. This program has been instrumental to my personal growth and development, and I hope to be that positive influence on my students just as some of my educators have been for me.

3) In a promotional presentation to faculty and staff at the elementary school, I addressed the Ready, Set, Teach Program and my prospective goals to the school's faculty and staff.

Community:

1) In Lubbock, Texas, we have the Poncho Claus Drive. I go out and collect toys for children that are burdened with spending time in the hospitals and adoptive centers.
