Each chapter may have one voting delegate in attendance. The voting delegate badge will be in the registration packet that must be picked up before the House of Delegates session.

Chapters may turn in contributions to the Region V Service Learning Project on Friday during general registration. See the FCCLA website for specific information about the Service Learning Project.

Hotel information is available on the Texas FCCLA website. Curfew is set in the hotel at 11:00 p.m. This means that members should be in their rooms by 11:00 p.m. with doors closed and voices should not be heard from the halls or through the walls. Please help enforce this by orienting and monitoring your students.

Scholarships are once again available to FCCLA members. The application for all scholarships can be downloaded from the Texas FCCLA (www.texasfccla.org) web page. The deadline for scholarship submission is March 1, 2017. We also encourage chapters to complete and submit the National Program Awards Application. This application can be found on the national website, and located under the drop down button "awards." The website address is <http://fcclainc.org/content/program-award-applications/>. Master Advisor and Mentor Advisor application forms can also be found on the Texas FCCLA website (www.texasfccla.org) in the Advisor Section. We encourage you to nominate yourself or another deserving advisor.

The officers look forward to having you attend the 2017, regional meeting. Please plan to participate in the entire meeting. If you have any questions, please email Judy Engleman, jengleman@texasfccla.org, 903-388-4135.

FCCLA Guidelines and Information

Participants are expected to attend and participate in all sessions, workshops and activities so they can gain as much as possible from the meetings. Students who disregard the rules will be subject to disciplinary action and may be sent home at their own expense. Parent/guardians will be notified. All meeting attendees should be informed of the following:

- *All students must be accompanied by an adult chaperone
- *Behavior at all times should reflect a positive, professional image of you, your school, your city and FCCLA.
- *Any accident, injuries or illnesses should be reported to the adult chaperone immediately.
- *If a student is found responsible for stealing or vandalism, the student and his/her parents/guardians will be expected to pay for all damages.
- *Students may not purchase, possess, consume, or be under the influence of alcohol or an illegal drugs at any time. Violators will be subject to stringent disciplinary action
- *Smoking is prohibited.
- *Males and females should not be in hotel sleeping rooms without the supervision of an adult sponsor.
- *If any inappropriate sexual conduct occurs, regardless of gender, age, grade or race, responsible adults will be informed and appropriate action will occur.

Advisors/Chaperones Responsibilities:

- *Permission slips should be obtained prior to leaving for the regional meeting.
- *If students are going to be allowed to swim, permission must be obtained from the parents; all students MUST be supervised at the pool at all times by the local advisor.
- *Advisors and chaperones are responsible for the behavior and discipline of their students throughout the meeting. Students causing disturbance or displaying inappropriate behavior will be asked to leave the meeting and the hotel.
- *An adult must accompany and supervise all students at a ratio of about 1 adult for every 10 students.
- * Male chaperones should supervise male students.
- * The curfew during the meeting is 11:00 p.m.

Food in the Convention Center

NO Food or Drink can be brought into the American Bank Center! There will be several food vendors located in the convention center. Several restaurants are a short drive from the convention center. The city of Corpus Christi will provide brochures with a list of restaurants and a map. The brochures will be available at the registration desk.
